Leader-In-Resident Luncheon Featuring Dr. Precious Elmore-Sanders

The Center for Ethical Leadership is thrilled to have Dr. Precious Elmore-Sanders join us for a luncheon. Dr. Elmore-Sanders is an alum of OSU and currently serves as the Assistant Vice President for the Division of Institutional Diversity & Director of the Office of Multicultural Affairs. Dr. Elmore-Sanders received her Bachelor's degree in Family Relations and Child Development and her Master's degree in Special Education, both from OSU. She received her Ph.D. from The University of Texas at Austin in Multicultural Special Education and minored in Vocational Rehabilitation Counseling. Dr. Elmore-Sanders has a passion for higher education and helping enrich the lives of students' by working to give them the best experience possible. Her commitment to higher education, diversity and teamwork make her an inspiring person to hear from this March. Please join the Center for Ethical Leadership in honoring Dr. Elmore-Sanders hearing from the inspiring voices that make OSU what it is today.
