

CENTER FOR ETHICAL LEADERSHIP

Leader-In-Resident Women's Leadership Forum with Vickie Carr

The Center for Ethical Leadership is thrilled to have Vickie Carr join us for a featured evening event on Women in Leadership. Vickie is an alumna of OSU and has many years of experience as a Tax Partner at Deloitte in Dallas. Vickie began her career as an intern with Deloitte in Tulsa and later moved on to Memphis where she spent time serving clients in multi-national public companies. She has held many leadership positions throughout her career and has been active in Deloitte's firm activities. Vickie's most recent achievement is becoming the National Competency Leader of the Financial Reporting of Taxes in addition to serving clientele. She frequently travels as a speaker for conferences both leadership and otherwise and has served as a liaison between the Spears School of Business and the Deloitte University. Vickie and her husband Jeff are active donors to the OSU School of Accounting and helps students achieve educational goals through the Jeff and Vickie Carr Endowed Scholarship in Accounting. The Carr family holds OSU's traditions near and consider them an important part of their lives. You can find Vickie and her family at all the OSU football games when she is not working. The Center for Ethical Leadership is thrilled and honored to have Vickie Carr as our Leader-In-Resident this month.

HIGHLIGHTS OF OUR NEWEST LEADERSHIP GROUP | NSLS

The National Society of Leadership and Success is the largest leadership honor society in the U.S. Their mission is to provide training and skills in leadership to aspiring leaders in colleges around the United States. Oklahoma State announced its membership in September of 2016 has joined one of the many colleges that offer NSLS membership to its students. There are many benefits to joining this honor society from gaining a unique community of peers committed to leadership to gaining skills and training for some the nation's most respected leaders. By joining this network, you gain access to job banks, scholarships, discounts on computers, and much more. Membership is for life as well. The Center for Ethical Leadership is thrilled with this leadership addition and is excited to see what bright young minds will find success through this opportunity; just one of many offered at Oklahoma State University. To learn more visit their website at www.societyleadership.org.
