Any questions??

Funding

Organization Funding

- Graduate Student Organizations: GPSGA is the funding source for Graduate groups
- Sports Organizations: Sports Club Council is the funding source for Sports Clubs and they are not eligible for SGA funding

AFAP Funding

- Activity Fee Allocation Process
- Purpose: A certain portion of student activity fees are set aside each year to be disbursed to student organizations to carry out programming
- Amount: Varies greatly dependent upon need.
- Eligibility: Only Group 1 Recognized student organizations are eligible. These groups must also be “current” with CampusLink and University Accounting as well as have completed the Treasurer’s training module during the current school year. Groups that have not processed repayment of unused SGA funds from previous semesters will not be eligible.
- Process: Applications become available by December. They must be completed on-line. After the deadline has passed (in late January), a series of hearings will be held to consider funding request. Once allocations have been approved by the university president, funds will be disbursed in two equal payments – one each in the fall and spring semester of the following academic year.
- Deadline: Last Friday in January

SGA Co-Sponsorship

Co-Sponsorship:

- Purpose: A certain portion of student activity fees are set aside each year to be disbursed to student organizations for use in carrying out one-time events. This can include, but it is not limited to a program that is being hosted or sponsored by the student organization or attendance at a conference.

- Amount:

 - Group 1 Registered student organizations are eligible to receive up to $500 a year (until fund is depleted)

 - Group 1 Recognized student organizations are eligible to receive up to $1000 a semester (until fund is depleted)

- These groups must also be “current” with Leadership & Campus Life and not have any outstanding repayment due to SGA.

- Process: Submit an application via the website:

 - <http://osusga.okstate.edu/images/Documents/co-sponsorship.2.14.13.fillable.pdf>

 - A representative must attend the SGA Budget Committee Meeting and SGA Senate Meeting when the co-sponsorship is being considered. Once the legislation has passed, funds will be transferred directly into the organizations account.

- Deadline: Applications must be submitted prior to the event or conference the organizations is requesting funding for. Applications submitted by 4pm on Wednesday may be discussed at the next weeks SGA Budget Committee Meeting.

SGA Multicultural Affairs Funding

Multicultural Affairs Committee (MAC):

- Purpose: To assist any student organization that wishes to promote multicultural interaction and activities on the OSU campus
- Amount: Varies depending on need.
- Eligibility: Must be a registered student organization.
- Process: Submit an application which includes a description of the event or conference with a detailed budget on the website:

https://app.it.okstate.edu/sga_forms/index.php/module/Default/action/ViewForm/form_key/50

Attend the SGA committee meeting for the request to be heard. Funds will be transferred directly into the organization's account once the committee has made a decision to fund the group.

- Deadline: No deadline, groups can apply throughout the fall and spring semester

Session Outline

1. What is Branding?
2. Public Relations Opportunities
3. Student Union Communications Coordinator Position

What is branding?

Your brand is your image. And your image is what helps you build and maintain your membership. Your brand is the persona your organization projects to perspective and current members as well as other influencers such as family members, alumni, faculty, etc.

Your reputation is what is going to make you sink or swim. Make your organization stand out in the best way possible and map out your way to success.

1. Lack of Planning
2. Inconsistent Brand Image
3. Producing Low Quality Content
4. Breaking Brand Promises
5. Underestimating Online Marketing Opportunities
6. Not Listening to Your Audience
7. Badly Designed and Hard to Navigate Website
8. Crossing Line Between Different and Offensive

Public Relations Opportunities

- Campus A-frames
 - $75 per location for 10 working days
 - Set up through Facilities Management at <http://fm.okstate.edu/signs>. Keep in mind required timeline to set up the appointment and plan accordingly.
 - Artwork can be created on Student Union Marketing Department and has a required 4 week timeframe.
- OSU Calendar
 - <http://calendar.okstate.edu>
 - Anyone with an O-key login can add events.
- CampusLink
 - <http://lcl.okstate.edu/campuslink-user-guide>
- Chalking
 - For chalking permits or to set up reservations visit: <http://meetings.okstate.edu/>
- Campus Postings
 - Flyers must be approved and stamped at the Meeting & Conference Services desk (Student Union room 179) before they are posted on campus.
- Digital Signage in the Student Union
- Video Services
 - You can contact our Multimedia Producer, Coleton Gambill: bain.gambill@okstate.edu, for any questions you may have about creating video footage for your organization.
- Photoboxx
 - Reserve through Student Union Activities Board.
 - Once you have a reservation, you can request the Student Union Marketing Department to design a unique frame just for you!

Student Union Marketing Department

- Design and print services available, including social media and digital graphics
 - For printing purposes, our department is working with FedEx to keep costs down and one easy way to do that is giving ample time for FedEx to complete the print job successfully.
 - All recognized and/or registered student organizations, are given 100 free flyer prints for designs created within the Student Union Marketing Department. Contact Kailey Bookout for more details.
- Policies, procedures and timelines:
 - 2 week minimum timeframe
 - Please see handout for other project timelines
- Online marketing request: <http://lcl.okstate.edu/projectrequest>
- Once your event is finalized, do some research on what you hope your event to portray.
 - Thoughts to consider:
 - What is the purpose of the event?
 - Who are you trying to reach?
 - How will your audience benefit from your event?
 - How to explain your expectations in the project request:
 - Be descriptive
 - Example: "I would like to incorporate OSU colors, an image of the Student Union, and our organization's logo"
 - Avoid vague terms
 - Example: "I want fun, fresh and funky."

CampusLink User guide

The screenshot shows the OSU Leadership & Campus Life website. The header includes the OSU logo, the text "LEADERSHIP & CAMPUS LIFE COMPLETE YOUR EDUCATION", and navigation links: "About Us", "Contact Us", "Student Organization Resources", and "Online Applications". A search bar with "Google Custom Search" is also present. The main content area features a breadcrumb trail "Leadership and Campus Life / CampusLink User Guide" and a large heading "CampusLink User Guide". Below this, a paragraph explains that CampusLink is OSU's student organization, leadership development, and volunteer service database. A bulleted list of features includes: creating and advertising events, collecting forms, holding elections, storing files, messaging members, tracking attendance, recording service hours, and recording involvement transcripts. A note states that all student organizations must keep officer and advisor information up to date. A "How to:" section lists several video guides: "How to Update your CampusLink Officer, election and Advisor Information", "How to Upload Documents on CampusLink", "How to Create a Webform, Application or Survey on CampusLink", "How to Create an Event on CampusLink", "How to Track Event Attendance on CampusLink Using an ID Card Reader", and "How to Create an Election on CampusLink". At the bottom, contact information for the Graduate Assistant for Campus Life is provided.

Leadership and Campus Life / CampusLink User Guide

CampusLink User Guide

CampusLink is OSU's student organization, leadership development, and volunteer service database. It provides an easy way to manage all aspects of your student organization online. Use the "Manage Organization" button on your organization's homepage to manage all aspects of your organization including:

- Creating and advertising events and meetings
- Collecting forms, applications, and surveys online
- Holding elections online
- Storing important organizational files online
- Messaging organization members
- Tracking attendance at your events and meetings
- Recording community service hours for you or your organization.
- Recording your campus involvement on your student involvement transcript

*All student organizations at OSU are required to keep their officer and advisor information in CampusLink up to date since it is the only location for organization contact information.
